

421 BRINDLINGALM

Start in Hippach near the Ziller Bridge, taking Bike Route Nr. 401, the Zillertaler Höhenstrasse.

The ascent begins immediately after passing the church. Ride steadily uphill over a series of winding curves, where there is little opportunity to catch your breath. Instead, you will pass several alpine guesthouses where cyclists are made very welcome.

After a while, you will reach the hamlet of Perler, where paragliders are offered the first opportunity to take off. After passing a small chapel, the route carries on uphill. The only level section of this route occurs just before a tiny village called Mösl. Continue until the turn-off for Brindlingalm, where you should follow Bike Route Nr. 421 through the forest to the Brindlingalm.

Arrival: Parking area near the Train Station in Hippach individual arrival: www.oeamtc.at/routenplaner/ Timetable: www.mayrhofen.at/en/service/timetables/

Tourismusverband
Mayrhofen-Hippach
Dursterstraße 225
6290 Mayrhofen
+43 5285 6760
info@mayrhofen.at

Difficulty: hard
Altitude: 1070m
Highest Point: 1660m
Track length: 11.4km
Starting point: Train station Hippach
Endpoint: Brindlingalm
Best season: May - October
Road condition: Asphalt- und Forststraße
Difficulty: C
Duration: 1h 30min
Sea height: 588m
Altitude: 1070m